

Incorporating Indigenous Knowledge as a Foundational Principle For Fish Habitat Conservation

Anecita Agustinez, Executive Manager
Office of Tribal Affairs, CA Dept of Water Resources
May 28, 2024

Navigating the Waters: Exploring the Nexus of Fish, Habitats and Humanity Across the San Francisco Estuary

Trust Land

Ancestral Land

Fee Land

Traditional Territory

Indigenous Knowledge

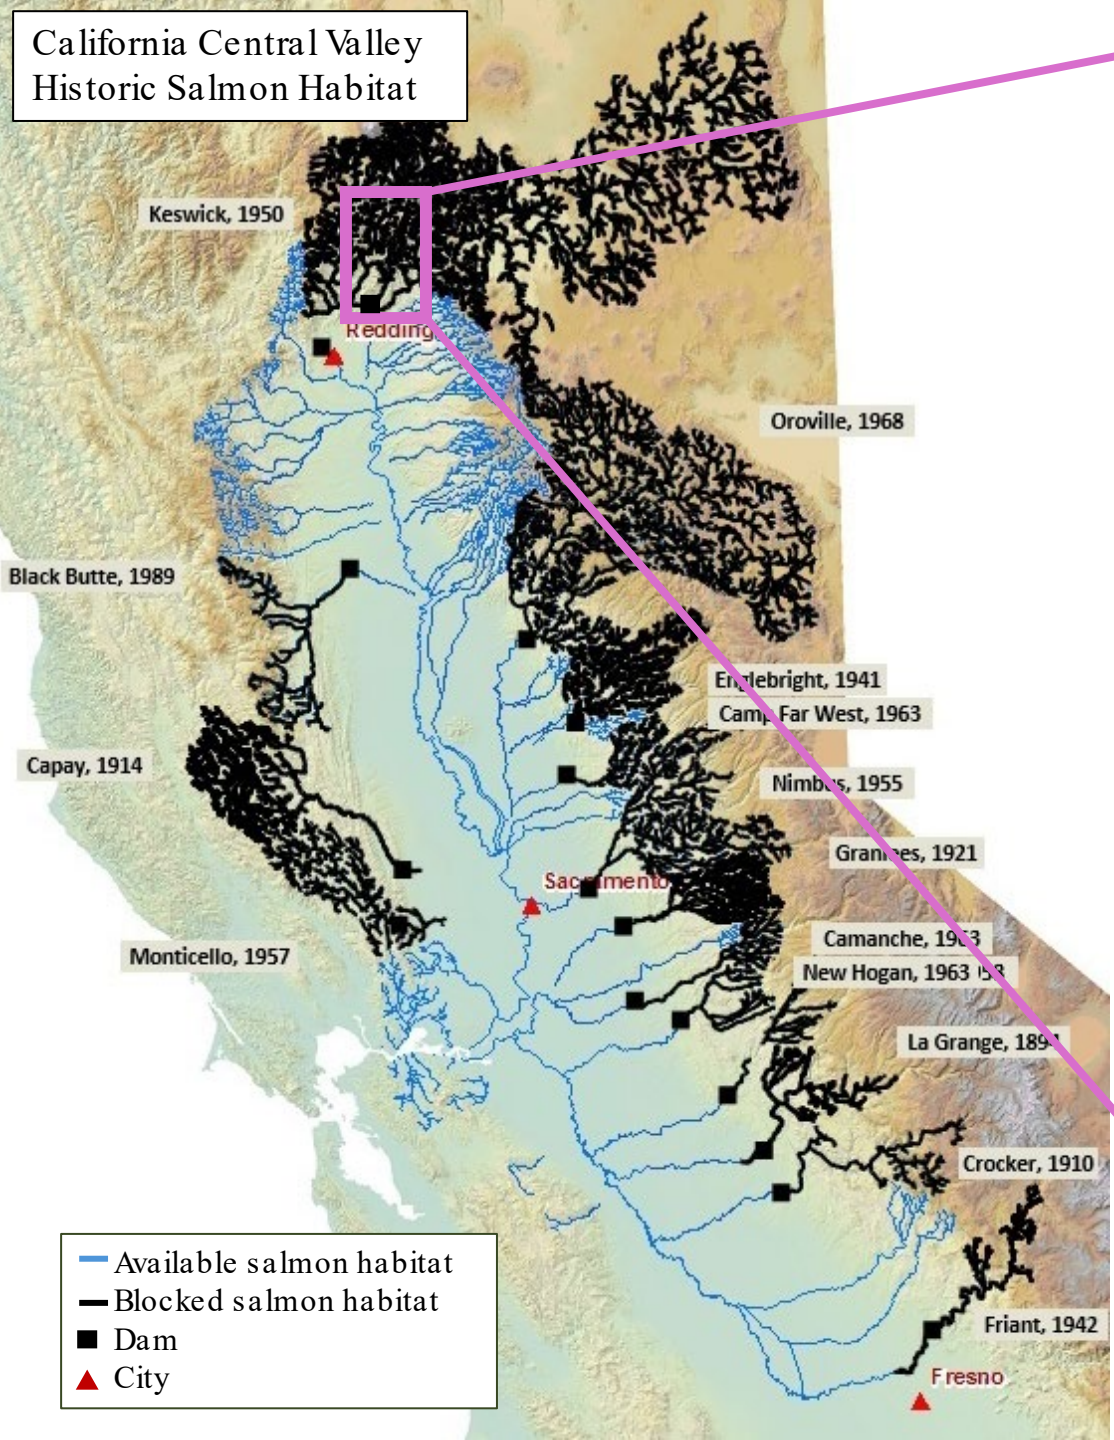

Governors Salmon Strategy

Agreements to Support Healthy
Rivers & Landscapes

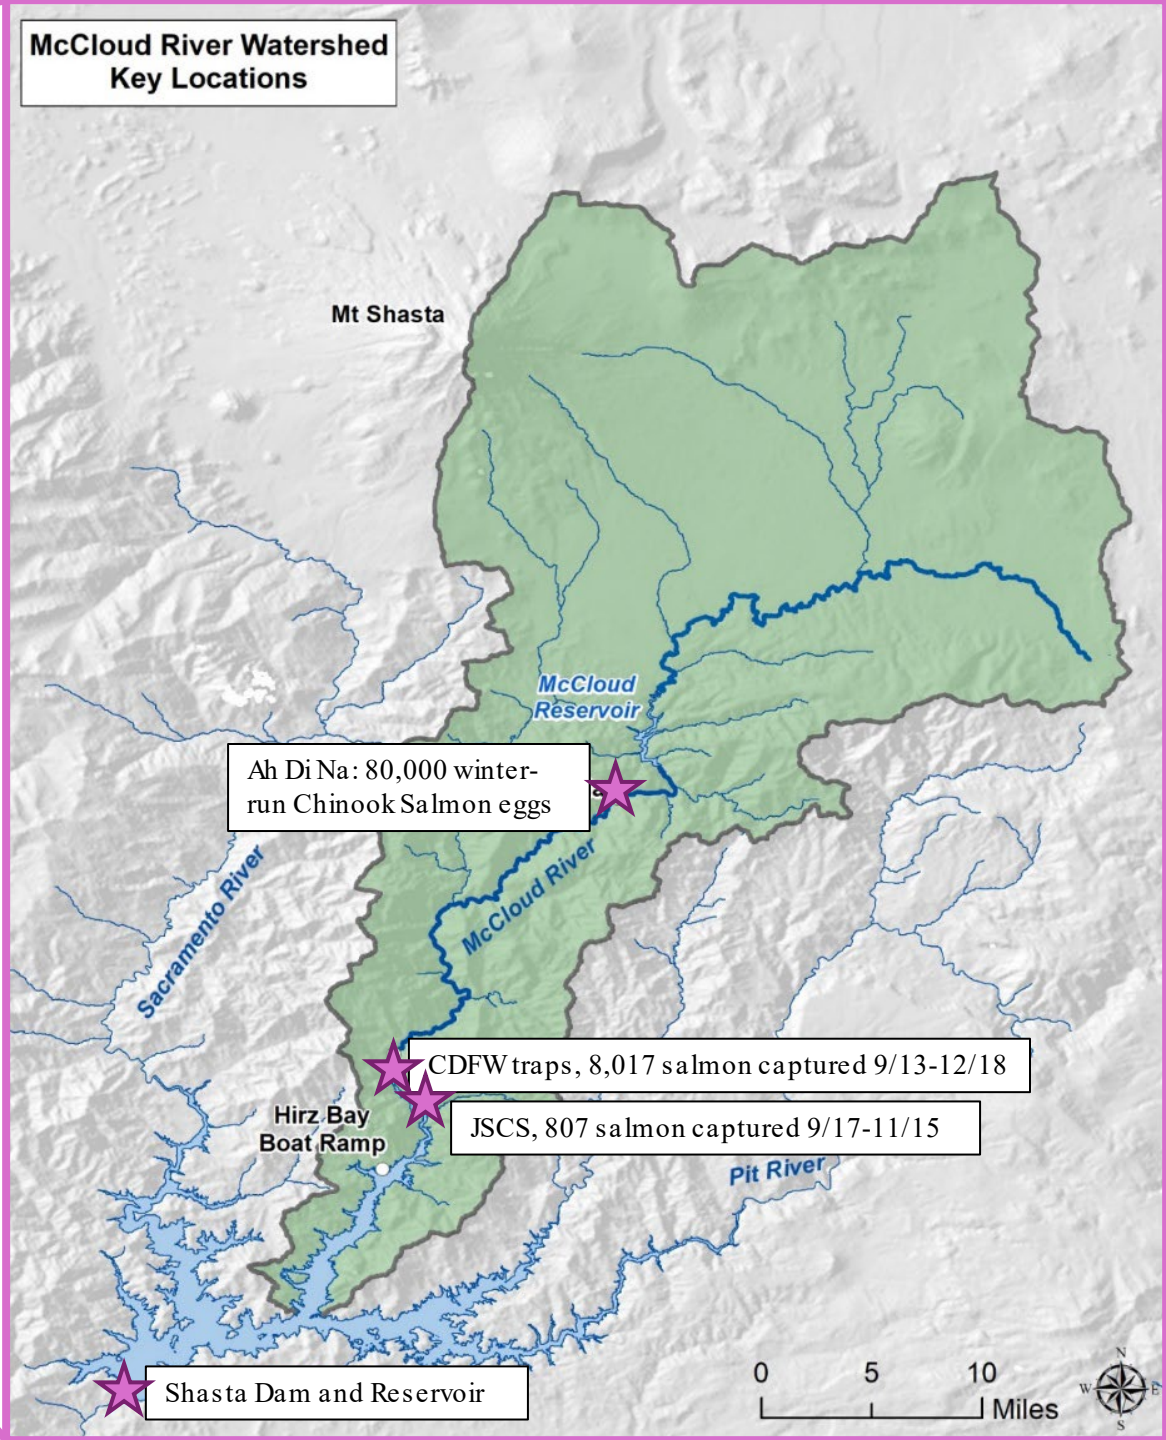

Co-management/Co-governance

Best Available Science

California Central Valley
Historic Salmon Habitat

McCloud River Watershed
Key Locations

The Winnemem Wintu have been the stewards of the McCloud River, the Winnemem Waywaket, since time immemorial

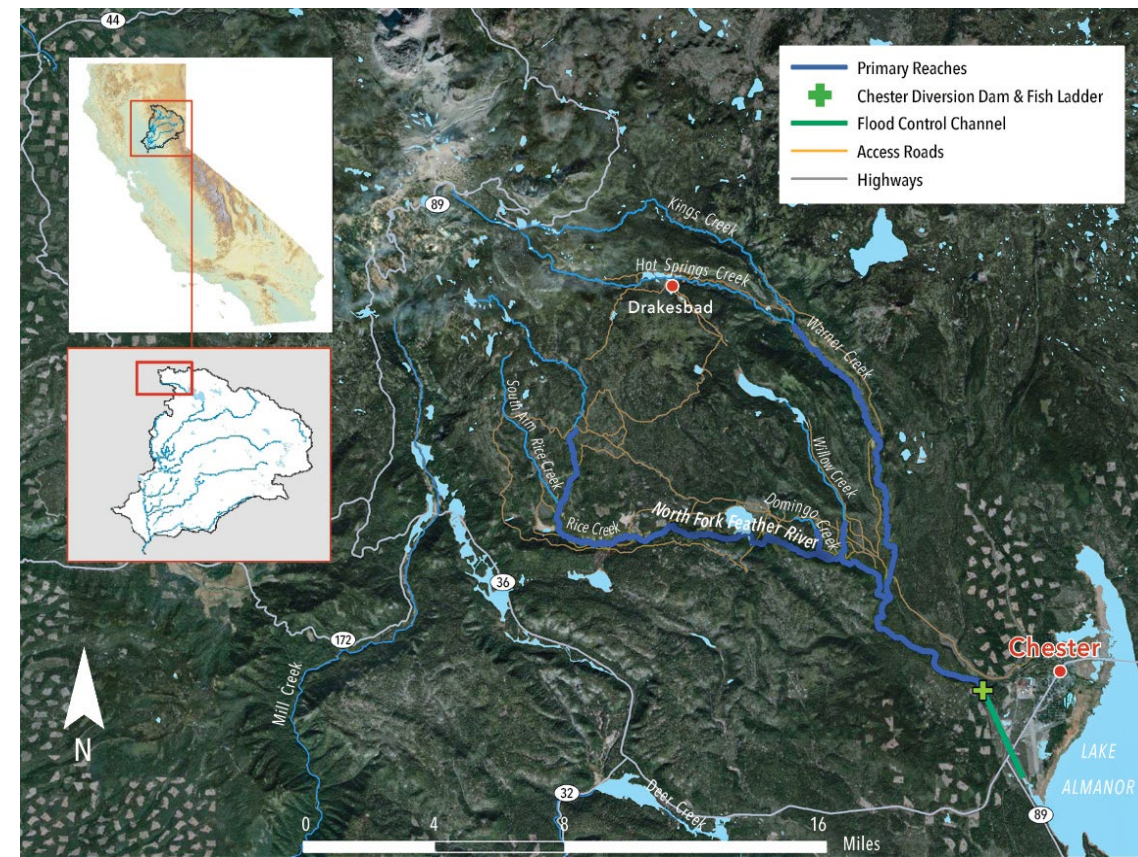

Partnerships

North Fork Feather River Above Almanor Fish Passage Feasibility Study

- Investigate spring-run salmon reintroduction
- Collaboratively engage partners & perform outreach
- Building support and plan for future actions through the study
- Funding Tribal Participation

Maidu Summit Collaboration

- Three Tribal Engagement meetings held in 2023
- Tribal participation contract with Maidu Summit Consortium and Pacific States Marine Fisheries Commission
- Upcoming Tribal Engagement meeting this June
- Tribal Subject Matter Expertise

Closing Thoughts

TribalPolicyAdvisor@water.ca.gov